

Thursday October 5th

Anatomy Lecture Theatre, Old Medical School, Edinburgh

18:00 – 19:00 – Public Lecture

'Fertility Preservation – Another Dimension'

Professor Teresa Woodruff (Northwestern University, Illinois, US)

Friday October 6th

South Hall, Pollock Halls, University of Edinburgh

08:45 – 09:00 – Registration

09:00 – 09:15 – Welcome and Introduction

09:15 – 10:15

Symposium 1 - The effects of cancer and its treatment on future fertility and establishing fertility preservation services

- Fertility and pregnancy after cancer treatment – Richard Anderson, UK
- Egg freezing in adolescent/ girls – Stuart Lavery, UK
- Establishing an ovarian cryopreservation service – Sheila Lane, UK
- Setting up a testicular cryopreservation service – Rod Mitchell, UK

10:15 – 10:45 - Coffee

10:45 – 12:00

Symposium 2 - Fertility preservation services – ethics and law

- Ethics - Jonathan Ives, UK
- Law - TBC
- General discussion

12:00 – 13:00 – Lunch and poster session

13:00 – 15:00

Symposium 3 - Strategies to protect fertility in children and adolescents treated for cancer

- Protecting the prepubertal testis from effects of cancer treatment - Brian Hermann, US
- Approaches to protection of the ovary from cancer treatment – Francesca Klinger, Italy
- Testicular transplantation for the restoration of fertility in males – Stefan Schlatt, Germany
- Free communications

15:00 – 15:30 – Coffee

15:30 – 17:00

Symposium 4 – Getting it right in fertility preservation

- Improving fertility preservation provision – Melanie Davies, UK
- Decision aids for fertility preservation – Georgina Jones, UK
- Semen cryopreservation and future use for fertility treatments – Allan Pacey, UK